

February is “American Heart Month.” Write a short letter to a friend or family member, sharing three things you can do to keep your heart strong and happy. Include why it's important to take care of our hearts and how these habits can make us feel good!