

September is National Book Month. A new type of book, an eBook, is making its way into homes and classrooms around the world. An eBook doesn't use paper and is listened to by the "reader." Would you rather read a paper book, listen to an eBook or a combination of both? Why?